

CHECKLIST – Significant Effects on Outcomes of Importance to Iwi / Māori

Tēnā koe. This checklist has been provided to help you indicate whether the proposed application has any significant effects (adverse and/or beneficial) on any of the following outcomes that have been identified as being of importance to iwi/Māori. Please state why and to what extent in the comments section.

Outcomes of Importance to Iwi/Māori	Any significant ADVERSE effects on any of the following outcomes?		Any significant BENEFICIAL effects on any of the following outcomes?		Comments (why and to what extent?)
	Yes√	No√	Yes√	No√
Environmental - the productivity and life-sustaining quantity and quality (including spiritual) of:
Traditional Māori food resources (mahinga kai)
New Zealand's indigenous flora and fauna (Ngā taonga koiora)
Other flora and fauna valued by Māori (Ngā taonga tuku iho)
Water - inland and coastal (Ngā moana, roto, awa, manga)
Land (Te whenua)
Air (Te hau)
Natural habitats and ecosystems
Other natural resources valued by Māori

Cultural – effects on kaitiakitanga including the protection and enhancement of the mauri, mana and tapu of:	Yes√	No√	Yes√	No√	Comments (why and to what extent?)
People (Te tāngata)
Native flora and fauna (Ngā taonga koiora)
Valued flora and fauna (Ngā taonga tuku iho)
Land (Te whenua)
Waterways - inland and coastal (Ngā moana, roto, awa, manga)
Air (Te hau)
Traditional Māori values and practices (Ngā taonga tuku iho)
Māori knowledge system and world view (Mātauranga Māori)
Other cultural outcomes valued by Māori

Health and Well-being – the protection and enhancement of:	Yes√	No√	Yes√	No√	Comments (why and to what extent?)
Taha wairua (spirituality, health and well-being)
Taha whanaunga (family/wider group health and well-being)
Taha hinengaro (mental health and well-being)
Taha tinana (physical health and well-being)
Other health and well-being outcomes valued by Māori
Te Tiriti o Waitangi/Treaty of Waitangi:	Yes√	No√	Yes√	No√	Comments (why and to what extent?)
Ongoing management by Māori of their cultural and natural resources
Ongoing rights of Māori to develop culturally, socially, spiritually and physically
Implementation of the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi
Other Te Tiriti o Waitangi/Treaty of Waitangi outcomes valued by Māori

Māori Economic and Iwi/Hapū Development:	Yes√	No√	Yes√	No√	Comments (why and to what extent?)
Māori business interests and the capacity and capability of Māori to develop economically
The ongoing participation of Māori in the generation of economic benefit; and the burden of economic cost
Iwi/hapū capability and capacity development (people and culture assets)
Other Māori economic and iwi/hapū development outcomes
Other Outcomes (Please specify)	Yes√	No√	Yes√	No√	Comments (why and to what extent?)